

Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law is one of the best actions of the Indiana Attorney General in recent years. Imposing the "established business relationship" exemption would weaken and jeopardize the protection it affords to thousands from the scourge of unconscionable telemarketers. Please deny it.